

340B Hospitals Using Savings to Care for Patients with Low Incomes of 340B hospitals report using savings to care for patients with low incomes or those living in rural communities

Large 340B hospitals use savings to:

- provide uncompensated/unreimbursed care
- provide free or low-cost drugs
- support services in underserved areas of rural critical access hospitals rely on 340B savings to remain open of 340B hospitals say savings have helped improve patients' medication adherence

Results based on survey of 340B Health members conducted in Nov-Dec 2019